How Maine lawmakers voted in 2015 (handy to know before you contact anyone): http://itsmydeath.com/wp-content/uploads/2017/03/LD1270_VoteHistory.pdf

Lawmakers who oppose this legislation have a habit of not admitting that to their constituents who want them to support it. Knowing how they voted in 2015 will help you learn how they will most likely vote in 2017, particularly if they are affiliated with the religious right or ultra-conservatism.

Scroll to bottom and select "Mailing List Service" in lower right. Submit your info and select "Health and Human Services Committee."

LD 347 Call to Action (one page): http://itsmydeath.com/wp-content/uploads/2017/03/LTR_LD347_Supporters.pdf

This sheet defines who is on the committee, how to contact them, and how to submit your written testimony. Plan to attend the public hearing, even if you won't speak publicly. There is strength in numbers.

Maine lawmaker chambers testimony (for those who spoke in support or opposition to LD 1270 in 2015) and three Maine video testimonials (three individuals who wanted to record their stories in case they didn't live long enough to see the bill come around again. One died in December. The other two are still living): <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCW1tLhGYwJ5tKsWad1GpBPw>
